

RULES AND REGULATIONS

As a member of the Missions Team, you are expected to maintain the highest standards of integrity, honesty and morality. It is our belief that all members of the mission team are to be mature and responsible in their behavior.

Members of the mission team will need to help one another maintain a quality atmosphere at all times. They will need to encourage one another in the work of the Lord. An attitude of submission is essential for effective ministry (Eph. 5:21). Members of the mission team will need to acknowledge and affirm that they will comply with the Honor Code of the Behrman Ministry team.

The code is in effect 24 hours a day, regardless of place or circumstances. Members of the team will need to exhibit a good appearance at all times. Both dress and behavior must exemplify the highest standard of Christian example. Members will need to exercise good taste and dress appropriately.

LIFESTYLE AND CONDUCT

1. Stay “prayed up” and on “go” at all times.
2. Stay full of the Word.
3. No illegal drugs, alcohol, or tobacco products.
4. No profanity.
5. Group leader must know where you are at all times.
6. Be on time to all meetings.
7. Meet dress code.
8. Always have a servant’s heart and attitude!
9. Remember, we are visitors in the nation. Respect the missionaries and national leaders and ministers we are working with as Ambassadors of God.
19. Must have a good time!!!!

DISCIPLINE AGREEMENT

The rules and regulations that are enforced during the mission trip are expressly designed to ensure the safety and well being of each member of the team and to maintain the highest degree of Christian integrity required to minister in a good missions trip. Enforcement of the rules and regulations shall occur in a manner that is in accordance with Christian principles and the purpose of our mission trip. We expect full cooperation from members in disciplinary decisions that are made. Although we expect this will never happen, we must reserve the right to send home any team member who shows blatant disregard of the stated rules and regulations. The team member is responsible for any cost involved in being sent home.

I have read, understand, and agree to this Discipline Agreement.
